“ My Father. Nearly 2 years has passed since we last hugged, smiled or shared a day together. I remember it like yesterday, we had a wonderful chat about Anya the White Wolf and how pretty of a dog she was. We discussed possibly going to Costco later that Friday afternoon. You were watching Nico while Rachell and I were finishing up our days at work when we came to get him. I found you on the ground suffering from the stroke. I carried you to the couch and tried my best to help you but you had already suffered the damages.. we were 2 weeks away from signing refinance paperwork so I could takeover the payments on the house and you could officially retire. We were going to go see an estate attorney the week after this all happened.. I'll never forget it. My father, with love I wish you peace and most of all to be free of any burden you have ever suffered. You were a beautiful soul, truly the best father anyone could have asked for. I loved you more than anyone will ever understand and you I.. we had the best bond until we didn't.. but I know I spent the last few years of our time together making it the most. I love you, Daddy.. I will always love you.

“ Alberto's favorite pastime was building and designing on his property with myself and his daughter Laura. Home depot was our second home. He loved his mustang convertible and would pick me up and take me to red rock or the mountains. I miss my trusted confidant and best friend. Rest in peace Alberto till we meet again.💕💕

“ Alberto's hobby and passion was building structures on his property. His daughter Laura loved building with him, they were very close. He was also a potter in his early years in Washington. He was a deep thinker and liked to solve other people's problems. At the end of the day he loved watching the sunset with his glass of cabernet. He was my best friend and partner and will always be a part of me. (The good part) LOVE YOU!
