Footprints in the Sand

One night I had a dream. I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord and across the sky flashed scenes from my life. For each scene I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to me and the other to the Lord. When the last scene of my life flashed before me, I looked back at the footprints in the sand. I noticed that many times along the path of my life, there was only one set of footprints. I also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in my life. This really bothered me and I questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you would walk with me all the way, but I have noticed during the most troublesome times of my life there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why in times when I needed you most, you should leave me." The Lord replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never, never leave you during your times of trial and suffering. "When you saw only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

“ For the family...I dedicate this poem to all who can find even the slightest comfort within the words. I wrote this several years after losing my daughter, Katelyn Mae Childers to SIDS. The poem is inspired by the Christian movie, The Shack. I suggest for anyone in mourning or grief stricken to watch it. There aren't any comforting words; I understand that. I also know that I turned my back on everyone who wanted to help me through and chose my own destructive path which I'm still trying to recover from 13 years later. Please, y'all...stand strong and united for one another and never turn down a warm, loving hug. People do care!Let The Healing Waters FlowReminiscing on the pastAnd the life left behindA tear builds with emotionNever a chance to rewindMove forward, just go onPress towrd your set markWords so easy to speakThough never a place to startPrecious memories play on and onFrom the journey through each day For mending the empty heartThat's been shattered and tossed awayTears now begin streamingRolling steadily down the faceLittle rivers cleanse the painWashing the hurt away So let the healing waters flowLet them free the burdened soul Let them nourish and heal the bodyFor newness to blossom and growOpen up the weary floodgatesLet the healing waters flowThese are no signs of weaknessFor you've carried a heavy loadGrowth comes now upon you Having endured the raging stormIt's time to fulfill your purposePredestined before you was bornTake a kneel, bow down to HimPraise His glorious NameIt was Jesus Who coddled you softlyWhen you couldn't go another dayIt was He Who lay down His lifeHe let His Healing Waters FlowHanging upon the crossFelt pain you could never knowMove forward, just go onThis task can now be doneWalk the righteous path Imputed by the Father's Son.
