

Amy Jean Racht

January 26, 1957 - October 17, 2024

Obituary for Amy Jean Colang (Racht) Amy Jean Colang, (married name: RACHT) a beloved nurse, sister, daughter, mother, and grandmother, passed away peacefully on October 17, 2024, in Las Vegas, NV. Born on January 26, 1957, in Syracuse, NY, Amy's life was a testament to her kind heart, joyous laughter, and her unwavering love for her family. Amy's compassionate nature shone through in her career as a nurse. Known for her exceptional care and gentle touch, she dedicated her life to helping others. Beyond her professional accomplishments, Amy was a vibrant and spirited soul. Her laughter was a beacon of joy, and her ability to impersonate others was legendary. She loved cooking and cherished the opportunity to gather her large family together for meals filled with love and laughter. Amy's life journey took her across the country. After graduating from Corcoran High School in 1975, she pursued her nursing education in Syracuse, NY. She later relocated to Nolensville, TN, where she worked in the emergency room at a local hospital and raised her daughter, Lauren. Amy's love for her family led her to Roswell, GA, where she resided near her sister Linda and brother John. In her later years, Amy moved to Las Vegas, NV, to be closer to her daughter in 2021. Amy passed away peacefully after an extended illness under hospice care. She leaves behind her daughter, Lauren Racht, her grandson Conner, and her sisters, Cheryl Colang, Rita Colang (Houtchens) and Mary Colang (Hilcoske); her brothers, John Colangelo, Dan Colang, and Tom Colang; and her beloved nieces and nephews. Amy was preceded in death by her brother Floyd Colang and her sister Linda Colang (Halpin), and by her parents, Marie Masucci and Floyd Colang.