When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey and I travel my last weary mile, just forget if you can, that I ever frowned and remember only the smile. Forget unkind words I have spoken; remember some good I have done. Forget that I ever had heartache and remember I've had loads of fun. Forget that I have stumbled and blundered and sometimes fell by the way. Remember I have fought some hard battles and won, ere the close of the day, then forget to grieve for my going, I would not have you sad for a day, But in summer just gather some flowers and remember the place where I lay, and come in the evening when the sun paints the sky in the west, stand for a few moments beside me and remember only my best.

“ Andrea, I will forever carry you in my heart! You always guided me down the straight and narrow so that I could live a good life and look at me today, you gave me this! I continue to carry out your mission of helping other people and I will make sure you get the fame and glory! I pray you are looking down on me and you are proud of the woman I have become! I apologize ahead of time, but I will not say goodbye because saying goodbye means you'll never see someone again and I have every intention of seeing you again! So until we meet again, fly high my Queen and show them how it's done! I love you ❤️

“ my deepest sympathy for Andreas family. We meet about 6 yrs ago at St. Therese outreach when I was a staff member. We became quick friends. We had many long talks about life and everything. What a sincere, great person she was. She helped me with a couple of garage sales. Going to miss Andrea very much.
