She is preceded in death by her parents, Louis and Jennie Giannola, her brother Gasper Giannola, sister-in-law Anna Giannola and grandson Kevin Treadway.

Her niece described her best by the following:

I am missing her phone calls, the laughter, telling me her recipes, telling me about when they were kids...a tough, loving, giving lady... can't wait to be on 78th Street again. We will be able to talk, laugh, eat - forever. Just give us a garage, basement or a kitchen!

God saw she was getting tired, And a cure was not to be, So he put his arms around her, And whispered "Come with me", With tearful eyes we watched her suffer, And saw her fade away, Although we love her dearly, We could not make her stay, A golden heart stopped beating, Hard working hands to rest, God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best, Although her heart stopped beating, Her love will always remain, Her absence puts upon our hearts, A very heavy strain, For now she is in a place of everlasting rest,
We just have to understand that God, He only takes the best.
