

Arden D Rampe

November 25, 1941 - September 7, 2021

Arden Dwayne Rampe passed peacefully on September 7th. He was born on November 25, 1941 in Glendale, California. He worked for the City of Glendale, until he retired. He met his wife Shirley in La Crescenta, California where later they married. Arden moved with Shirley to Las Vegas, Nevada and spent the rest of their lives there.

In his younger years, Arden built a home in Sugar Pine, California where he and Shirley frequently visited. The home was not far from his parents and sisters home in Sonora, California.

He was a Navy veteran and traveled on his time off and told many stories of these trips.

Arden is survived by his sister; Durlene Wirth who lives in Murrietta, California, his nephews; Wayne, Warren, and Wade and their 6 children, Uncle Frank and his family in Utah, his step son; Mark Decker and daughter-in-law Sally McGann, step daughter; Tina Lewis and grandsons; Tyler Decker and Shane Williams. Arden had special names for all of them.

Arden was known for his sense of humor and repetitive jokes. He would tell his jokes to anyone who was around to listen.

Arden will be sorely missed. His ashes will be placed alongside his wife Shirley in Sugar Pine.
