“ I am so sad to hear of the passing of Attaway. We met when his mom (Mother Miles) attended my granddad's (Bishop Samuel Smith, Jesus Rock Apostolic Faith) church. My aunt Esther and I would spend the night over there when we were little girls. Attaway would always treat us to Dairy Queen, when we behaved. We are currently residing in Las Vegas and would to attend the memorial. I am not sure if the family will receive my email address, so, I will leave it here, instead of my phone number. tawanda_rodgy@hotmail.com

“ Attaway was good singer. I almost hear his gospel renditions now. Heaven has received one of the best for it's choir. Last time I saw him was McDonald's in the village shopping center. We briefly talked about our days in the Young Adult Choir of Trinity Baptist Church. He was a joy to be around I will truly miss him.

“ Sincere condolences to Eardeal and family of Attaway Armstrong. He was a Gary Indiana postal coworker. I worked with him on the midnight shift. He was funny, a jokester and had a beautiful singing voice. His melodic voice could be heard as we worked the mail. My nickname for him was "Urr-Urr".
