May 17, 1957 - September 8, 2022

Barry John Brewer, 65, passed away peacefully Thursday, September 8, 2022, in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Barry was born May 17, 1957, in Andrews, Texas to Billy John and Margaret Ann Brewer.

He graduated from Clovis High School in 1975 where he excelled as a member of the golf team. Several years after graduation he was called to Alaska by his Uncle Dan and his cousins Danny Jr. and Doug to work in the oilfield. He was an active community member serving on various boards, organizing many golf tournaments and as a Trustee of the United Methodist Church of the New Covenant for many years.

Barry enjoyed golfing, building furniture that can be found in all his daughters' homes, spending time in the yard doing projects, the occasional trip to the casino and spending time with his family. He was loved by many and will be remembered for his sparkling blue eyes, amazing smile, quick-witted jokes, and his big kind heart.

He is preceded in death by his parents and both maternal and paternal grandparents and his son-in-law, Adam Mizzi.

He is survived by his daughters, Alicia Maltby (Shawn) of Anchorage Alaska, Kamela Brewer of Las Vegas, Nevada and Kelsey McLeod (Austin) of Wasilla, Alaska.

Grandchildren, Dylan Maltby, Carson Maltby, Trevor Maltby, Trey Maltby and Sienna McLeod. Sister, Beverly Brewer of Clovis, New Mexico; Cherie and Scott Curry of Anchorage, Alaska, and numerous other family members and friends in Alaska, New Mexico, Texas, Colorado, and Utah and finally his loving and devoted dog, Cricket.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Barry's name to the charity of your choice to honor his years of volunteerism in his community.

“ My memories go back to 1975, dragging Main Street in Clovis, when a guy in a green Chevrolet Chevelle Laguna pulled up to a red light next to a girl in a white Ford Pinto, and persuaded her to pull over for a chat. That main street drag was the beginning of a friendship that lasted thru 47 years. I'm comforted by reminiscing the many wonderful memories of those times in Clovis. Photos of Barry and me at my prom; Barry in a baby blue tux and me in a baby blue gown what were we thinking? I have photos of Barry with bandages from head to toe from a motorcycle mishap on his way to his job at the Missouri Meat-Packing plant - he didn't look, nor feel very lucky that day, but the Good Lord wanted to keep him around here with us a little longer, so he was spared that day. Barry went on to broaden his horizons by moving to Alaska and creating a life there for most of his life, but we stayed in touch through the years, never more than a phone call or text away. I know Beverly is lost without her big brother, and daughters, Alicia, Kamela, and Kelsey are missing their dad; and the rest of us will miss his wit, kindness, and spirit. We love you and miss you, BJ.

“ Of all the years we knew each other I still remember the day we took the family down to Tijuana (25 years at least) I know we carried one little sleepy head all day. Can't believe I never knew his birthday was the same as mine. He was the 5 year older version of a great guy. Peace be with you my friend. Vaya con Dios
