My heart sleeps in the emerald dream,
and forever missed on Azeroth and on Earth.

“ We are missing you and will forever. Nothing will fill your place in our hearts. Yo means deep conversations and meaningful family discussions about Politics, life, death, philosophy history. My heart shrinks silently when I was aware that you cross the rainbow to the other sides and never comes back to us. I miss you my beloved son, my man. You are here in my hearts forever. Dad
