A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me. Remember the best times, the laughter, the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again."

“ Bette was the best friend but not just to me to everyone she met. Kind, giving, caring and sharing. We belonged to the same church Mesquite Club, Town Club, traveled together, cruised, shopped, and just loved having a good time. She was an excellent bridge player and a great conversationalist. Although she had difficulty with sight she never showed despair always acceptance her situation with grace. She will be missed by so many. I love you Bette
