

Beverly A Mangrum

September 21, 1952 - February 7, 2024

Beverly Anne Mangrum

After a lengthy battle with uterine cancer, Beverly was called home on February 7, 2024, in Las Vegas Nevada.

Beverly Anne Mangrum was born on September 21, 1952, in Memphis, TN. She was the oldest of six children born to the union of the late Charlie and Verna Mangrum. The family moved to California in 1953 and Beverly graduated from Jordan High School in 1970.

She moved to Henderson, Nevada in 1973 and began her career as a hospitality professional. With more than 30 years in the industry, several of those years were spent at the Stardust and Paris.

Beverly was very dedicated to her family. She became a mother in 1973 when Greg was born. Family came first to her, and she was extremely loving and generous to those that were a part of her life. Beverly's family was blessed to include many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, grandchildren, countless loved ones, and friends.

Her faith was extremely important to her. Beverly joined Sunrise Mountain Ministries in 2015 and became a greeter. She was baptized in 2022. She praised God daily and loved attending worship. Beverly celebrated life with smiles and laughter no matter the circumstance. She pushed past her pain with a smile. Beverly loved watching the news and sharing good stories. One thing we all know she loved dearly, was her PEPSI!

Beverly was preceded in death by her sisters June and Audrey. She was loved and will be deeply missed by her brothers Chuck and Eric, as well as her sister Cynthia. She is survived by her son Greg, and her 5 grandsons, Galyn, Garyd, Gevon, Giordan, and Gacoby.
