

Bonnie Joyce Gill

May 23, 1955 - February 22, 2024

Bonnie Joyce (Hunt) Gill fell asleep in Christ on February 22, 2024, at the age of 68.

She was the youngest of six girls and was born on May 23, 1955, in Montrose, Colorado to Rosco and Bonnie Hunt. Bonnie spent most of her early years in Colorado, graduated from Cedaredge High School in 1973, and then attended Mesa State College where she met and later married her husband, Richard Gill on February 13, 1977. During her 47 years of marriage, she and Richard lived in Colorado, Nebraska, and Las Vegas, NV.

While living in Nebraska, they welcomed their son, Michael in 1980 and after moving to Las Vegas soon after, they welcomed their daughter Allyce (Gill) Pierson in 1985. In addition to Michael and Allyce, Bonnie was a surrogate mother to countless children throughout the years, known as Aunt Bonnie.

Bonnie worked for Young Electric Sign Company for over 25 years fulfilling a variety of positions, and responsibilities, and brightening lives with her bright light until her retirement in 2021.

Together with her husband and children, Bonnie was an active member of the Mountain View Seventh Day Adventist Church, participating in Path Finders and volunteering at the Las Vegas Junior Academy. In her retirement, she dedicated her life to her true life passion, life as a Grandmother, Granny.

A quiet storm, Bonnie was feisty, relentlessly kind, and above all valued love and family.

Bonnie was preceded in death by her parents, Rosco and Bonnie, and her sisters, Yvonne Ashurst, Donna Richardson, Shannon Brown and, her sister and very best friend, Roxey Ranftl. She is survived by her sister, Carolyn Burton, husband, kids, grandkids, and numerous nephews and nieces.
