August 23, 1976 - April 3, 2023

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard His call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. O yes, these things too, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee... God wanted me now. He set me free.

Brenda was born August 23, 1976 in Pago Pago, LBJ Hospital in Fagaalu in American Samoa to goodly parents Falefata M. Latu (Father) of Salelavalu Savai'i and Salelagi S. Paletaoga (Mother) of Pago Pago American Samoa (deceased) and was raised by her grandmother Fetoloa'i Paletaoga (deceased) all her early life in the village of Pago Pago. She is survived by her husband Kanui Semaia and her only daughter Charlette Salelagi Latu and her siblings and all her hearts (nieces and nephews). Brenda was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. A proud representative of her village Pago Pago (Home of the Aeto). Brenda formed many friendships through sports in her early years. She played basketball, volleyball, soccer, pool...anything that will take her away from doing chores.

She is a graduate of Samoana High School class of 1994 and forever a Sharks fan. She is a die hard fan of Seattle Seahawks. She loved her family very much, and she loved her nephews and nieces even more. Her heart and her whole life was her daughter Charlette "Chachi". Brenda is deeply missed with her sudden departure from this earth. As a family we'd like to express our sincere and utmost gratitude for the outpouring of love during this trying time.

“ Brenda is someone who was always about Family!! She has such a loving spirit!! It don't matter how long I haven't seen her but once I ran into her, she would always ask first how is Mina? Mina is my mom, only family knows my mom by that name!! And then she would ask about me later on during the conversation lol, She has a laugh that is contagious!! You can't help it but laugh along!! Growing up one thing about Brenda I admire so much is when she prays!! The words of her prayers is like sweet aroma to the soul that's so inviting of the Holy Spirit that you want her to keep on praying lol!! Brenda I love you Earnestly!! I will be missing you in my own way!! Families are Forever!!!
