

Brian Timothy Murphy

August 20, 1948 - February 6, 2026

Brian Timothy Murphy (August 20, 1948- February 6, 2026)

Brian “Tim” Murphy born in Santa Monica, California in 1948 to Joseph and Eileen Murphy. Tim attended Pacific Palisades High School, graduating in 1967. That same year he joined the army, before studying and obtaining his BA and Masters degrees, going to work at Bank of America and later retiring from Comerica Bank as First Vice President of International Trade & Finance.

Tim was preceded in death by his parents and son, Patrick Murphy, and is survived by his wife May; his daughter Dorothy Dragon-Castro; son-in-law, Einjar Castro; and grandchildren Jewel and Colby.

Military Service is February 26th at Veterans Memorial Park - Boulder City, Nevada and reception is immediately following.

Tribute Wall

JP

“ I had the honor of serving as Vice-Chair of the Inland Empire District Export Council while Tim served a Chairman. I knew him as a modest and gentil man who was humble and well-balanced. He will be missed. I extend my thoughts and condolences to the family.

Jerry Paresa - March 27 at 01:06 AM