

Cameron Michael Fleenor

October 6, 1993 - April 16, 2025

Cameron Michael Fleenor was a kind and gentle soul, deeply loved by all who knew him. Born in Kirkland, Washington, Cameron had a passion for nature from an early age—a love that shaped his resilient spirit and carried him through even life's toughest challenges. He attended school in Ellensburg, Washington, where many of his close friends and his father still reside. An avid gamer and someone who found joy in the simple things, Cameron was always eager to help others and brought light to those around him, no matter his own circumstances.

He is lovingly remembered by his brothers, Raven (with Holly and niece Georgia) and Bryce; his sister, Maya; his mother and stepfather, Tisha and Keno John; his father, Brad Fleenor, along with stepmother Sharla and Corey; his grandparents, Dee and Neva Fleenor, and Phil and Sandi Jensen; his aunts Brenda and Kristy; and extended family members Uncle Wayne & Family, Uncle Jason & Family, Uncle Dale & Family, and Aunt Michelle & Family. His memory will forever be cherished by all whose lives he touched.

Tribute Wall

CR

“ *My Dear Brad,
My heart aches for you and your family. I am so deeply sorry for the loss of your son Cameron. Although I didn't have the chance to get to know him well, the fact that he was the same age as my eldest makes your pain feel especially close to my own heart. I can't begin to imagine the weight of losing a child. No parents should ever have to go through such a heartbreaking experience.
Right now, nothing can truly ease this pain, but I hope that, with time, you will find a way to live with the emptiness left by your beloved son and grandson for Neva and Dee.
I want you to know that I'm holding you all in my thoughts with so much love and tenderness.
Big hug!!
Cristina*

Cristina - January 03 at 04:37 AM