“ Thinking of our dear friend Chuck on his one-year anniversary with our Heavenly Father and still missing him more than ever. Saying prayers for his faithful wife Mari, my best friend and the strongest woman I know who gave everything in helping, loving, and caring for the husband she loved so much through his long, difficult battle to the very end. Mari, may your life be blessed by the memories of his love and shine ever stronger. I'm thinking of you and looking forward to our long-awaited reunion❤️.

“ Chuck was a great High School friend. We spent many hours together in the band and playing sports. We both went to Lehigh, and while we did not see each other there much, whenever we did get together we always had a great time. I lost touch with Chuck after graduation but thought of him often. Always hoped that we would one day reconnect. I am sad that we will never have that chance. I am sure he is badly missed by all that have been lucky enough to be in touch with him. To all of you I am so sorry for your loss.

“ We enjoyed our times with you so much. The memories in PA, Vegas, and the Jersey Shore were always filled with love and laughter (and some tears) and anticipation for the next time we could be together. We will miss your sense of humor and zest for life and all the plans/dreams that cannot happen. Not many people are so lucky to have such great friends dating all the way back to high school! Rest in peace dear friend. You deserve it for the fight you gave.
