

Chris Rasimowicz

June 21, 1966 - February 9, 2017

Chris Monigold-Rasimowicz, age 50, of Las Vegas, passed away on February 9, 2017. He was born on June 21, 1966 in Chula Vista, California and was raised in Las Vegas, where he graduated from Clark High School. Although Chris lived most of his life in Las Vegas, he was an avid traveler. He began his travels abroad when he was stationed in Germany as a member of the U.S. Army, and visited more than 20 countries in his lifetime. Chris was a loving son, brother, brother-in-law, and uncle and a great friend to many people. He is survived by his mother, Julia Monigold, his two sisters, Anya Fontes and Mindy Tippetts, his two brothers-in-law, Tony Fontes and Aaron Tippetts Jr., and his six nephews, Andrew Rionda, Austyn Montgomery, and Aaron, Trevor, Tyler, and George Tippetts. Chris is also survived by his favorite cat Lucy, who traveled with Chris to more countries than most people ever do. A Memorial Service for Jon Christopher Monigold-Rasimowicz will be held on February 25 at 2:00 p.m. at Affordable Cremation and Burial, 2127 W. Charleston Blvd., Las Vegas, NV 89102.
