Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one. I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when my life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways. Of happy times and laughing times and bright sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun. Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

“ Today on your birthday I sit here and reminisce about the wonderful times we had. I think about how proud we were of you. A beautiful, God-fearing, caring, funny, smart, and fun loving woman. I think about our matinee days, our shopping days and our volunteering day. As we go through the photo album today we laugh and remember the great times we had. As we go on we will never forget you. We will always love and cherish you and you will be with us forever.

“ For My Sister Chrystal, Together we shared everything. We talked...we disagreed. We share many hurts and joys. The older we grew, the stronger the bond between us became. I was always so proud to have you as my sister. Now life has taken us down separate paths, but your well-being and happiness will always be foremost in my thoughts. I love you sister, and I always will.
