

Cindy Lou Carr

April 2, 1958 - November 1, 2020

Welcome Me Into Peace

Welcome me into the peace and tranquility of eternity! Goodbye, my friends and loves!

Tribute Wall

TB

“ Dearest Cindy,
Thank you for being a wonderful cousin and inspiring me to follow my theatre dreams to NYU and London. I'll always remember seeing you and dad in the audience at Performing Arts in Buffalo during my senior show OUR TOWN. I pray for you, Auntie Dolores and Uncle Louie. I know you are with Gramma Bykowicz and our family with Our Lord. I will do my best to care for Rosalie long distance as our family. Each time I'm in my classroom, I dedicate my day to your passion and dedication to education and the Arts. Love you and God bless your soul. Always remembered. Tina xxx

Tina Bykowica-Walker - February 05, 2022 at 12:00 AM

DD

“ Miss you. 😞

Dena Davenport - October 21, 2021 at 12:00 AM

EP

“ Rest in peace Cindy. You were always a good friend. Dance!

Edith Peskir - November 12, 2020 at 12:00 AM

LG

“ You are a shining light and such a brave woman. I pray we meet again in the next life and share laughter as we did when you were here. Cindy you are my hero. Rest In Peace sweet lady. 💕

Lenora Gasbarrini - November 10, 2020 at 12:00 AM

MZ

“ Thank you Cindy for making such an amazing impact on Erin's life as a dancer.. Our family cherished you as a mentor and most of all friend.
We will miss you and pray that you are watching us all. Your love of dance inspired Erin's love of dance and hopefully that will inspire her three girls to love it as well. She tells them about you all the time and explains that she learned from the best. We love you.. RIP Miss Cindy

Mark and Karen Zoyhofski - November 07, 2020 at 12:00 AM

RG

“ My sweet Cindy you are missed. We did the best we could for you during your struggle. I hope you felt the love, prayers and virtual hugs from everyone that loved you. You will always be carried in my heart. I love you and take comfort in knowing you are safe and back with your parents. Fly high my sweet girl.

Rosalie Giamo - November 05, 2020 at 12:00 AM

JG

“ *Cindy Lou it was an honor to know you. What incredible courage and strength you showed in your fight. Always a smile and sense of humor through it all.
Rest in Eternal Peace friend. Peace and Love to all who knew you.*

Joyce M. Di Gesare - November 05, 2020 at 12:00 AM

RG

“ My sweet Cindy you are missed. We did the best we could for you during your struggle. I hope you felt the love, prayers and virtual hugs from everyone that loved you. You will always be carried in my heart. I love you and take comfort in knowing you are safe and back with your parents. Fly high my sweet girl.

Rosalie Giamo - November 05, 2020 at 12:00 AM