I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard His call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. O yes, these things too, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee... God wanted me now. He set me free.

Cora Lee Brooks, 55, a Child Psychologist of Henderson passed away Tuesday June 11, 2019. She was born February 13, 1964, to Geneva and Charlie Brooks. Cora graduated from Greenwood High School in 1982 and then attended and graduated from Cal Poly University with her bachelor's degree in 1999. She had a love for knowledge and did not stop there; she went on to get her Master's Degree in Child Psychology from Capella University in 2016. Another passion of Cora's was skating. She loved it! She loved spending time with family and friends more than anything. Cora is survived by her Loving Mother Geneva, and her warm-hearted Son, Gabriel. Cora will be sorely missed by everyone who knew her. "We just miss you so much and you will remain in our hearts forever and always" Mother Geneva
