

Daniel Anthony Caterina

August 5, 1941 - January 1, 2018

Daniel Anthony Caterina, of Lake Havasu City, Arizona, passed away on Monday, January 1, 2018. He was born August 5, 1941 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to parents Daniel and Anne (Anastasia) Caterina. He was 76 years old.

Dan grew up in Wildwood, New Jersey where he met and married his love, Joan (Griffiths). They were married August 6, 1960. The couple set up house in Avalon, N.J. where they had their three children. In his years there, Dan owned the barber shop The Razor's Edge, worked in construction and volunteered as a fireman for the Avalon Volunteer Fire Department. In the fall of 1978 Dan and Joan packed up their family and moved out west to Lake Havasu City. Dan was a barber for over 52 years and owner of Havasu-Cut Ups Barber Shop. He loved being a barber because it brought him close to people.

Dan enjoyed many sports and hobbies over the years. He both played and coached basketball and also played golf. He enjoyed dealing in antiques and woodworking. Dan also had fun playing darts and fantasy football where he met and made many friends. He made friends wherever he went and is fondly remembered for his sense of humor.

Dan is survived by his wife Joan; children Dan (Krista), Stephanie Gray (Jim) and Christine Cardeccia (Gary); and seven beloved grandchildren Christopher, Renata, Tessa, Robbie, Gianna, Patrick and Sophia; sister Charlotte Lauriello (Ben); as well as many nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life will be held at the Elks Lodge 3532 McCulloch Blvd on January 27, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. with a reception to follow.
