

Daniel J. Graydon

October 16, 1964 - December 11, 2020

Daniel Graydon passed away peacefully on 11 December 2020 at the Post Acute Medical facility. Dan graduated from Lompoc High School and subsequently joined and faithfully served his country in the United States Air Force for eight years. After his discharge, Daniel worked for CACI, Shell Oil, and Diamond Resorts. Daniel is survived by his sisters in California, brother in Las Vegas; and, a host of family members - aunts, uncle, cousins, nieces, and nephews - in California, Arizona, and Washington DC. He is preceded in death by his mother, father, and brother. Daniel will be missed for his generous spirit, wicked sense of humor, and the ability to bring over-the-top fun and laughter to any gathering.

Cards/condolences can be sent to Deborah Graydon at P.O. Box 2553, Lompoc, CA 93438.
