Miss Me but Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul that's set free. Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared. Miss me, but let me go. For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we knew and laugh at the things that we used to do. Miss me, but let me go.

“ Danny you were a great friend and more of a father to me then my father ever was. You will be missed by so many people. I hope you are riding a Harley through the stars and having a wild time. When it's my time to go I hope I'll be able to join you riding across the heavens. Love you Danny. Check on Michael From time to time. He is hurting terribly.
