

Darrell Cornell Whigham

April 27, 1959 - June 7, 2019

4 Psalm 121 Modern

The summits of the mountains draw my eyes and lift them upward and beyond, to you, the secret source of all my being. For in the heights and depths of you, in you alone, I find the grace and help I need, to walk upon this path called earth and never stumble nor go astray. For you as guard and guide keep watch; you will not sleep by day or night as we do. I walk into your wakefulness, your guarding eye, your guiding hand protects and shades my way. The sun by day, the moon by night, provide no better light than yours, no better shade. And in the shadows of the mountains deep you preserve me from its evils. And in this traffic of the heart you shield my life and keep my soul in all its many wanderings, until at last I come to stand, my weary feet now firm upon the borders of your land, eternity.

Darrell Cornell Whigham, (Beloved Cornucopia that of Heaven, the attribute of spiritual abundance & the richness of God) age 60, was found deceased on June 7, 2019 in Las Vegas, Nevada, where he lived for 22 years. Darrell, a very spiritual being that was beyond the laws of the universe and operated in and for love (in truth half angel, half human), was born in Cleveland, Ohio to Mary Lee Whigham and Rudolph Valentino Whitted on April 27, 1959. Darrell was a loving husband, twice married, first to Susan Joy and second to Sheree Ra and a loving father of four children, and three grandchildren. Darrell's firstborn child, Jamila Majesty (Beautiful Heavenly Child) preceded by Jadah

Uriah (Wise Light of the Lord), and Isaiah Joahl (Salvation of the Lord), all born between him and his first wife, Susan. His fourth child Trinity Amana (Holy Trinity of Faith) born between him and his second wife, Sheree. All of Darrell's children are living and well including his three grandchildren; first born grandchild Zoe Joy Sellner born to Jadah. Preceded by Aurora Holyne Majesty and King-Princeton Sire Majesty-Dawson, born to Jamila. Darrell C. Whigham moved to Sacramento, California as an eight year old child, adopted by his mother's new husband, David Clements. Darrell became a Clements then. Darrell Clements graduated from Rancho Cordova H.S. where he first met his first love and first wife, Susan Joy, whom he loved with all his heart and might. Darrell excelled at all sports including basketball, baseball, and football. He was a mega Super Star in the Capital of California for his ability to play sports. Darrell worked as a stock investor, realtor, and lead spot light for many stars. He would want to be known for his intelligence and not so much his talent performed with through body. Rather known for his mind and the beauty that flows through him for his oneness with God the Almighty Lord. Darrell was well-studied and a star-studded investor. Darrell and Susan had many of their own businesses as a young couple becoming parents at only 18 and 19 years of age. They owned Apex Investments, and Whigham & Associates, a real estate company in Alameda, California. Darrell also owned All Access, a company all on his own. His talent was professional sports, his dream was to be an Actor, never pursued. His love and passion was being a Loving Man of God and a good husband and Father. Darrell loved his children and family tremendously and that was what meant the world to him. Darrell was the first born child to Mary Lee Clements and brother to six brother's and sister's. Three from Mary; Jodi McMillan, Gregg Clements, and Thandi Clements. Three from his father Rudolph Valentino; Robyn Whitted, Charru Whitted, and Champion. Darrell C. Whigham has been transported to Los Angeles, California by his first born child and daughter, Jamila. Though he will be cremated here in Las Vegas his ashes will be kept among family members, as well as spread upon the heavenly waters, as he wished, in Southern California. Darrell is resting in love, power, and peace in Glendale, California inside The Great Mausoleum, Home of the Stars, at Forest Lawn Glendale.

. More than anything Darrell loved GOD before all else and always placed GOD before all matter and will eternally. His soul will live eternally and he will be forever remembered and loved. Darrell is in heaven and will now and always be glorified in love.

“ Brilliance mixed with deep love that shineth warm with penetrating light, I'll never know your greatness of energy with all of it's might, I've always admired you and wanted to be your son and law outright, so much knowledge, wisdom, and understanding you possessed as your God given right. I thought about driving by your golf home for a little advice, looked you up on Google to only see that you're on to another life. Farewell with much peace dear brother Darrell I could only thank you for what little about you I knew... but it was all greatness that I could say about you.
