Miss Me but Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul that's set free. Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared. Miss me, but let me go. For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we knew and laugh at the things that we used to do. Miss me, but let me go.

“ You will be missed my dear friend. This wasn't fair, what you went through. You had so much more living and laughing to do. You are the reason I found Peter, and for that I will be eternally grateful! I will treasure all the times we had together and the I will cherish the memories and laughter. We will see each other again one day. Love you!
