38 Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see, if the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me I'm right there in your heart.

“ I Met David at an interview I was on with the company he worked with as I was trying to get a job with his company. Immediately we hit it off and were in touch about this job and the position, He was good to me and hard working man he was. I will miss this man, because I was looking forward to work with him at this company.
