He Only Takes the Best

God saw he was getting tired a cure was not to be, so He put His arms around him and whispered "Come with Me". With tearful eyes we watched him suffer, and saw him fade away, although we loved him dearly, we could not make him stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.

“ I enjoyed having this man as my Grandpa. Our relationship was a great one. I'll cherish the memories of him at my volleyball and football games, driving me to school, and eventually teaching me how to drive. I'll miss him calling me over at a bowling alley to adjust my approach, and then magically throw a strike my next turn. He was always so kind and patient, and our time together was never dull as we'd playfully joke with each other back and forth. He supported me throughout my life and I will miss him. Losing him feels unfair, but I know we all have our time and we will one day see each other again. I love you very much papa.

“ Dave. Goes down in my book as one of the greatest. GOAT. I was very lucky to have met his son Dereck at 16 yrs old and was welcomed from day 1, don't know if he knew then that I would be the one his son would marry and give him 2 grandson's. I'm very blessed, Dave was always supportive and loved us all very much. He was my right hand man, he was there for every practice, game, and millions of favors I always asked for. We also squeezed in that Dodgers 2020 Championship together. Although, we can't be together in this world, it's great to know I still have pieces of you in Dereck, Drake and Dalton. Love you always, Amanda aka the boss, the boys, Liberty & Justice.

“ I had the pleasure of being his best man at his wedding. We played many softball games together. He played third base while I played first base. We had the corners covered. Now he has heaven covered. See ya soon, Dave.

“ Such a kind and generous soul. He never failed to welcome me with open arms and ask how this "kiddo" was doing. And when he asked you, he meant it. I'm so thankful to have known him and to have the privilege of seeing him live on through the memories and loved ones he's left behind. We will keep you in our hearts, Mr. Schmidt.
