“ I met Dave twenty plus years ago at my job in Vegas. He would always smile upon entering our dental office. Everyone got hugs before he sat down. His hugs were killers! One time I thought he broke one of my ribs! Then the fun began! Dave's quick wit kept us laughing until the appointment was done. Dave had a great sense of humor. Over the years Dave became a dear friend. Not only did he introduce me to my future husband Gunny, he gave me away at my wedding. Toward the end Dave was dealt an unfortunate hand. All his family and friends rallied around him giving him strength to fight which he did. Dave lost his fight on March 15, 2025. It was like a dream because everyone was certain he would beat this terrible disease. Dave was a great husband to his wife Naomi as she was a wonderful wife to Dave. Naomi was by Dave's side until the end. Dave will be missed by all his family and friends. From his mischievous smile, his killer hugs, and his all around great personality. He would give you the shirt off his back. Love you Dave. Ride With the Wind. Until we meet again.
