Prayer of St. Francis

Lord make me an instrument of Thy peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy. O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned and it is in dying, that we are born to eternal life.

He Only Takes the Best-Female

God saw she was getting tired and a cure was not to be, So He put His arms around her and whispered "Come with Me". With tearful eyes we watched her suffer, and saw her fade away, although we loved her dearly, we could not make her stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.

“ Debbie you would always be one of the first people that would come up and say hi at all the family gatherings with that beautiful smile on your face. There never was a time that you didn't do that. You truly was an angel on earth. Thank you for being you and touching my families heart so deeply. May God embrace your loving family and give them the peace that they need during this difficult time. Thank you for the memories Tanya and Eric Christensen

“ I write this, as everyone else has, with a very broken heart. When I think of Debbie, I see her contagious smile with a twinkle in her eye. I see someone who is truly happy to see you. I see a person who, when asks you how you are doing, really cares about what you are going to say. I wasn't around Debbie as much as I would have liked but when I was, I felt uplifted and I felt hope. My favorite memory of Debbie was when we had a family reunion out in California City. I remember Madi couldn't have been more than two years old. I sat and watched her walk with Madi around that pond and fed the ducks playing and laughing. That stuck with me through all of these years.... possibly because it showed me what true love really looked like and she showed that all throughout her life. We will miss you so greatly Debbie and your absence will be felt greatly, but that void that has been left in all of our hearts, I hope, is filled with many memories like these which should bring a smile to all of our faces. I know it does mine. We love you so very much. I am posting this song that I listened to so many times as I prayed for Debbie, Madi and Will. I know for sure she is not alone. “ Debbie. You were always the caretaker for your family and will continue to be that and more. You fostered a great family and that will continue on. I will always remember how joyful you were to see your baby get married and how you wanted to make sure everything was perfect because she deserved it and you made that dream a reality. I loved watching the bond between you two . Living forever in myself and the people you loved!

“ Debbie...it is very easy to picture you with a big smile...some of best school memories are of you and your enthusiasm, smile and kindness...I went to your birthday party at your home back in high school and quickly realized these are your family traits through and through...Until we meet again (and we most certainly will) Ted Ford

“ Debbie I will always thank God for bringing you into my life. From the first time that Bobbie and I met with you and Will I knew that you were someone special. We became family. I will miss the weekly dinners and game nights. But most of all I will miss your humor, your laugh, that look you would give me when Bobbie was giving me the "stink eye " during our rummy cube games. You left us so quickly and it hurt me to see the pain you were in. I know that pain is gone and that you are with our Lord Jesus. I thank you for the love you showed to Bobbie and me. For making up part of your family. I miss you and always will. You will always be loved.

“ Sweet Debbie, it's so hard to believe that you have left us and will now be a guardian angel to so many who loved you. I am so very thankful that I got to know you. You were always so warm and friendly to me and my family. I enjoyed your company, and I will miss you. Thank you for being so loving to Jordan. He loved to tease you and you always took it so well. You welcomed him into your family unit, and I'm so grateful you did. Jordan will be there in the moments when Madi really needs him to get through this heartbreaking loss, so rest easy in the arms of Jesus, my friend.

“ My Precious Sister. I really do not know what to say except how much I am going to miss you and how sad I am, as well as the family. Your loss was so unexpected.. We had some really fun times growing up together and had so many plans for the future. I will miss so much just talking and visiting with you. I wish you much peace as you so deserve it. You have been an exceptional person in so many ways and I thank you for being the wonderful and caring sister you have always been. I love you.

“ My dear Debbie. There aren't enough words to express my sadness that I won't be able to text you everyday and get together every weekend - you were my Rumikub competition. We had so many upcoming plans. I will miss laughing hysterically about memories. I remember you laughing so hysterically that we would cry. We had such fun on our wine tasting trips and all our other excursions. we talked about food all the time lol. You were such a fun, awesome caring friend and I will miss you so much. When I visited you in hospice you looked at me and said you need your mom and where is she? I know she was there to help you start your next journey. I am relieved you are now out of pain, at peace and in God's loving care. I love you will never forget you. ❤️❤️❤️ Bobbie Medeiros

“ *Debbie we spoke a few weeks ago. I told you of my great appreciation and love and I am forever grateful I did before it got too much for you. We both know you are with us all. Heaven gained its most precious angel. I love you! All my heart to Will and Madi. I am so grateful I was blessed with all of you guys. We will meet again. Thank you for You! Forever in my heart. “ The prayer above perfectly defines the person we were all blessed to have witnessed. An instrument of God whose purpose was to shine light in the darkness and bring warmth to the cold. I believe the pain we feel when God takes someone great is his way of encouraging us to be more like them. After all, the world would surely be a better place if we had more Debbies. Thank you for everything Auntie, I love you forever and always. -Karlee
