

Debora J Crowley

February 14, 1963 - April 11, 2026

You met the world with fierce intent,
And a stubborn, honest heart.
You never broke, you never bent;
You taught us how to be smart.
You held us to a higher light,
And set a relentless pace.
Though the road was hard, your soul was bright—
A shield of grit and grace.
The strongest woman we ever knew
Has set her spirit free.
We are the legacy of you,
And all you fought to be.

Tribute Wall

TC

“ She was my older sister, though we seldom agreed on anything losing her hit harder than I ever imagined it would. Miss you deb

tara crowley - May 06 at 06:51 PM