

Deidamia Catalina Caceres

October 25, 1941 - April 24, 2019

Deidamia Catalina Caceres, 77, a 55-year Las Vegas resident, died April 24, 2019 while in hospice care. Cathy was born October 25, 1941 in Asunción, Paraguay to Albertano Caceres and Maria Benita Segovia.

She was retired after devoting a number of years to the culinary industry in Las Vegas. She loved her family, raising four children on her own and enjoying time with her three grandchildren. Deidamia showed her children how to appreciate simple outdoor adventures and practiced mindfulness before it was a term. Whether fishing, sitting by a lake or staring off into the trees of Mount Charleston, memories were created, never to be forgotten. Culinary art was her passion, and she was truly an amazing cook. She shared her favorite family recipes including empanadas and Sopa Paraguay. She passed all these childhood favorites to her family and these recipes, and fond memories of her, will live on.

Deidamia was preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her four children: Joe Talavera of Las Vegas, Nevada, Maria Talavera of Aurora, Colorado; Laura Talavera (Morrow) and husband John of Reno, Nevada; Rodney Talavera and his wife Cathy of Vacaville, California; and three grandchildren. Deidamia gave her life to her family and will be greatly missed by each of them.

A private ceremony will be held.

“ *Sorry.
She was like a 2nd MOM back in the school days.
I just wish I could have said that to her.
You guys take care.
Drop me a line when you have time.
Marty.*
