

Diane Alyson Azzaro

May 24, 1956 - March 16, 2023

Diane Alyson Azzaro, age 66, passed away on March 16, 2023, in Las Vegas, NV.

She was born on May 24, 1956 in Amityville, NY, to parents Saverio and Barbara Dell'Accio. Many will remember Diane as a very colorful, social person and a pleasure to be around. We will always remember her purple hair, she loved the color purple. She loved all Disney characters, especially Winnie the Pooh. This beautiful woman had several tattoos including Tigger, Eeyore, and Thumper. She had quite a collection of Barbie Dolls, Beanie Babies, Gnomes, Elephants and Giraffes. Diane loved animals. She had three fur babies that she absolutely adored. The Lady enjoyed being outdoors and laying in the sun by the pool and tanning.

Diane is survived by her husband, Vincent Raffael Azzaro and her three children - Alyson, Christopher and Joseph. Also her Grandchildren, They were married for almost 29 wonderful years. They met at all places at a roller-skating rink. He was enamored with her and she was a devoted wife who treasured him. They had a bond that could not be broken. She was his inspiration for baking and cooking. Vincent even learned how to make her famous New York Style Cheesecake from scratch. It is a 9-hour process and you know he mastered it because she would ask him to make it all the time even at odd hours. Diane was very organized and always kept a clean house. Diane was truly dedicated to her family and cared about them very much. They meant the world to her. Her family and friends will always remember her warm smile and spirit of love. She will be forever remembered and missed by all who knew and loved her.
