

Diane Miralli

July 14, 1954 - January 28, 2023

On Wednesday, January 25th, 2023, Diane Miralli suffered a sudden cardiac arrest, and later passed away on Saturday January 28th, 2023, at the age of 68.

Diane was born in July 14, 1954 in Melrose Park, Illinois to Fermon J and Mary E (Lupinno) De Angelo. She moved to Las Vegas where she met and married Geno Miralli on August 19, 1995.

“ A year has passed since you left us. I think of you often. The kids miss you and talk about you all the time. Gianna started playing basketball at school and Vanni is trying out for soccer in a couple days. I tell them you're watching over them always and that you're so proud of them. Trey is still as amazing as ever. They're all growing so fast. We miss you so much. Things are so different without you. As you always say, Much Love We love you!

“ Hi baby Today is a year that you left me and it still feels like yesterday lots has happened since you left. We lost Krystapher December 21st he was in his room and after an hr or so I went in his room to see if he was hungry. He was face down on his desk and I tried to wake him he didn't wake up and was cold. I freaked!!! The paramedics couldn't revive him that's both of you in the same year. The dog is sick, it's only a matter of time. She has congestive heart failure, enlarged heart and kidney disease it's just me and her now. Pebbles still lays in bed and stares at your dresser and the door waiting for Krystapher to walk in. I wake up and try to be quiet so I don't wake anybody up and then realize I'm alone with pebbles. I expect either one of you to walk down the hallway. It's really freaky being alone. I guess God needed another Angel and he's got one. Soon he'll have my sister Vicki, drs gave her four months tops. I you're together watching over me. This is the hardest thing I've dealt with in my entire life!!! The girls are getting me through everything. I wish you were both here so bad sometimes I feel you here through the dog. Just the way she looks at me, something in her eyes she knows, just like little kids have imaginary friends. I'm going to sleep now baby. Take care of our son and watch over the family. We ALL LOVE AND MISS YOU..BOTH

“ Baby, it's coming on five months and it feels like yesterday. We had our ups n downs but they were mostly up. Until Adam passed . But somehow we got through it. I never knew what to write in here, and still don't. I'm in a fog like I've never been!! I always thought I would go first, I'm truly glad I didn't though because I don't think you could've handled me gone. There's so many things I wish I could ask you, but I can't. You were a strong, bullheaded woman.. but you were here !! Everyone here misses you more than you would think!! Everybody wears your ashes and I mixed some with Adam. You lived only to die and be with him. I loved you then and I love you now . If there really is a hereafter, dance with your son and be happy. You'll never be happier !! And if you find time say a prayer for me and especially our son . ALL my love

“ Diane was a rock, a force of nature who loved and lived fiercely. Hearing that my friend had passed has been devastating but I know this, she's on the other side with her Adam and she is no longer suffering that loss. I will continue to honor you my friend. Much love

“ I wish you didn't leave us so soon. We weren't ready for you to go. You're at peace now and with Adam, so for that, I'm thankful. Know that you are loved and missed tremendously! I'm so grateful to have had you in my life as my second mom. Daddy loved you so much. Please say hi to my mom and keep watch over my babies. They miss you. Much love
