Old Irish Blessing

May the road rise up to meet you, May the wind be always at your back, May the sun shine warm upon your face, And all the rains fall soft upon your fields, And until we meet again, May God hold you in the palm of His hand.

“ Growing up in Saddlebrook New Jersey in the 60s and 70s Donnie was a policeman in town. He was always respectful and as a younger generation always tried to teach us kids to do the right thing. He then bought a bar called Pop Bears. We had a lot of fun. May God bless him and his family.

“ Au revoir
Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep
By Mary Elizabeth Frye
Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there; I did not die.

“Michelle and Kelly I would like to express my sincere condolences to both of you, Your Family and Your Friends. I often think about our Christmas Eves that we spent together, good times. Do was a great guy and a go getter. I always felt reassured by his presence as we all negotiated our way through the Casino industry in its infancy in Atlantic City. Don was always there with an idea or a laugh. When you moved to Las Vegas Don and I kept in touch and after Lees passing I found myself in Las Vegas starting over. I got a kick helping Don out in a few of his projects. I will always treasure our friendship. Paula and I are back in New Jersey but if either of you ever need anything please dont hesitate to call. Love and Respect Bill and Paula Barry

“ UD, by now you are already in the great company of Mom, Dad, Donna & Jill. I am selfishly in tears knowing you have gone to a greater place. I love you forever Don. Thank you for being part of my life.
