Angel

Goodbye is the one guarantee we never want to say,
Though our hearts are hurting, heaven will rejoice today,
In you God gave us his precious masterpiece,
Yet with your physical journey over we know the pain won't decrease,
The only solace we have is knowing you are at peace,
Even thru the heartache your memory brings,
There is joy in knowing you gained your Angel Wings!

We promise to celebrate the memories of you with laughter,
No matter how hard, we will seek out happiness hereafter,
When we are missing you and it becomes hard to hold back the tears,
We will close our eyes and listen for your Angel whispers in our ears!

As life moves on we will ensure that the beauty of you we never forget,
We will live our best life as you wanted without regret,
Peace comes from knowing you are waiting at the heavenly gates above,
Watching over us as our guardian angel of love!
