

Donna Kay Kelly

September 20, 1961 - January 12, 2022

Donna Kay Kelly, born in Las Vegas, Nevada, was a lifelong resident of Las Vegas. She graduated from High School and College in Southern Nevada. She received her degree in Drafting and worked in the profession for several years. She went on to become a Massage Therapist and small business owner. She loved all things outdoors and enjoyed camping, hiking, boating, water and snow skiing. Her travels took her to Europe, Hawaii, Mexico and all over the United States.

She was an avid reader and loved her furbabies, she was the "Mom" to many dogs over the course of her life. Donna will be remembered by her loving family and many friends. She leaves behind her husband of 38 years, Ron Kelly; her parents, Jack and Pat Clark; her siblings, Cindy Jewell (Dean), Steve Clark (Leona Trang); brother-in-law, Chris Kelly; her mother-in-law, Elsie Kelly; her nieces/nephews, Lauren Jewell Atamian (Ricky), Jimmy Kelly (Angela), Brian Kelly, Justine Kelly (Nicholai Oudalov) and Chris Kelly. She is preceded in death by brother-in-law, George Kelly.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Stanford Medicine at healthcarepartners4.stanford.edu

A Celebration of Life reception is currently being planned.

"Miss Me But Let Me Go"

When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,

I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrow in doing good deeds,
Miss me but let me go.

“ Donna was a neighbor to us for a lot of my life and became a good friend through the years to me and my family. She treated my parents so kind and we loved to get together and play games, swim or just hang out with her and Ron. Their marriage was beautiful and they were bestfriends to each other. I pray for Ron as he travels the rest of his journey on earth with her kept close to his heart ❤️. We are here for you Ron! Love Michelle and Keith Madison
