Gone Riding

Don't cry for me, I still ride free, with the wind upon my face, leather in black, the sun on my back, a priceless gift of God's grace.

I'll never grow old, on these streets of gold, chasing a majestic sunset, and I still recall, how I love you all, sweet memories I won't forget.

And when your road ends, we'll meet again, inside the Pearly Gates, and we'll laugh awhile and go ride for miles, but for now, heaven can wait.

When you do get here, don't shed a tear, and think that I'm in hiding, just search Heaven's shore, where engines roar, and you'll find that I've gone riding.

“ Sorry to hear about cousin Earl. Please accept our heartfelt condolences for your loss to the Teller family. Praying that God’s love enfolds you and comforts through this pain. Stay strong and courageous. Do not be afraid, do not be discouraged for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go. And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who has been called according for his purpose. Blessed are those who mourns, for they will be comforted.
