I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard His call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. O yes, these things too, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee... God wanted me now. He set me free.

“ Mo, or "Uncle Mo" as we affectionately referred to him, was the epitome of humanity. Generosity, empathy, love, humor, and kindness all consistently characterized this charming, handsome, talented man. Everyone in his circle looked forward to interacting with "Uncle Mo." Spending time in his presence was often sufficient to make the day for those of us who embraced him as a friend. To say the obvious, Mo will be missed.

“ May your hearts soon be filled with wonderful memories of joyful times together. Your dad was such a great person. I think I will remember him the most by him always saying to me Mugggooo and the hand jester that went with it. Remember the time he spooked you and me Koko after watching that movie we won't mention. The one that scared the hell out of us so much I spent the night at your house on a school night!! Moe you will be missed, but now it's time to start your new life with those that you knew that passed on before you. You are free, now go make some music with Agnes and others that play as well.
