I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard His call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. O yes, these things too, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee... God wanted me now. He set me free.

“ To Ed's family, Ed was a good friend to many. I met Ed in 1987 in his basement We became good friends and he did my taxes until he retired. I will miss him dearly. When he lost Karen, Ed was so sad. Ed found his way through the pain of losing Karen to Jesus Christ. He spoke often to me about his family and loved all of you dearly.

“ I met Ed way too many years ago when he and Karen did my taxes in their basement in Chicago. Ed and I became friends after that first meeting. When he and Karen moved to Las Vegas Nevada, my wife and I continued our professional/personal relationship with Ed and Karen. We were both saddened when Karen passed away. After he sold his home, it was difficult to keep in touch, but we tried. Had lunch with Ed at a German restaurant he enjoyed, That was the last time we saw him. I just found out thru the FOP magazine that Ed had died in October of 2023. He will be missed by both my wife and myself. A GREAT cop and a GREAT friend. He will be missed by all who loved him.

“ My buddy Ed, you will be truly missed. I am so sad I wasn't able to visit you the last few years when I would come to Vegas. We at least were able to share conversations on the phone . I know it was never the same after you're loving wife passed away. I will miss you Ed and we will meet again to share some laughs in heaven. See you buddy. Will Wright retired cpd chicago

“ My dearest Ed, when we met in the spring of 1972, neither one of us knew that it was the start of a 51-year friendship, and what a friendship it was! Sleep well, my friend. Love, Joanne
