

Elizabeth Covello

April 10, 1940 - November 19, 2023

Elizabeth Covello was born into a large Italian family to Anthony and Nancy Covello on April 10, 1940. She moved to Las Vegas in the mid 1960's where she worked for REECO, a division of the Department of Energy, for more than 40 years. She loved tennis, golf and playing her guitar at family gatherings. You could always find Elizabeth spending time with the kids in the family. She would always ask people, even those she just met, "What astrological sign are you?" and proceed to tell them all about their attributes. She was one of those people that never met a stranger and would start a conversation with anyone, anywhere. She was loved and we will all feel her absence terribly. She is preceded in death by her father Anthony Covello, mother Nancy Covello, aunts Margaret Wikoff, Katherine Paola, Helen Lasco and uncles Edward Pellicano, Dominic Pellicano, Philip Pellicano, Charles Pellicano and Frank Pellicano. May she rest in eternal peace.

Miss Me but Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul that's set free. Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared. Miss me, but let me go. For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we knew and laugh at the things that we used to do. Miss me, but let me go.
