Our Memories Build a Special Bridge

When loved ones have to part
To help us feel were with them still And soothe a grieving heart
They span the years and warm our lives Preserving ties that bind
And bring us peace of mind~Emily

“ I'll never forget the time when she was still married to my brother that she was going down the stairs at my Mom and Dad's carrying figurines that my Mom gave her. She missed a step about three steps from the end and slid the rest of the way down. I can still hear her yell "I didn't drop my figurines!" when she landed on her butt! She was the best! Mom and Dad thought the world of her and so did I. Rest well Ellen. I'll see you again.

“ I miss you mom. Thank you for loving me as one of your own. My boys were so lucky to be able to call you Mimi. Why, because you took them on as your other grandkids. We will always be grateful to you. You leave us with so many memories. We have laughed, cried and acted crazy through the years. We have so many stories. You will forever be in our hearts. We love you always Mimi. Love the Gilgerts.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing this wonderful woman and her family since the second grade and she became another grandmother to me. I am grateful for the countless memories I have of her, from her and Kim dyeing their hair in the silly plastic caps at the Gilmore house to the New Years party a few years back where she partied right along side us 20 something year olds. She always knew how to crack the best jokes and was always someone we could talk to. I love you Mimi and miss you more than words can describe. Rest in peace
