Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one. I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when my life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways. Of happy times and laughing times and bright sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun. Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

“ Dad, Eugene Yuhas, you were the anchor in our family Providing stability. When you didn't have our hand you had our backs. Rather than offering advice, you led by example, allowing us to learn valuable lessons from your experiences. Your generosity was impressive, making you an exemplary model provider. A man who was deeply passionate about his work and to his family. Travel around Heaven and catch up with your family!
