Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see, if the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me I'm right there in your heart.

“ You are in my heart every day Flora. I'm so glad that you got to know and understand true love with your mom and dad. Alice and Josh miss you daily with broken hearts but we also know you are a shining star above all of us. I hope you are finally at peace, my dear child and I'll always remember our fun and silly times together, and the beautiful notes you left me every time I had to go home to CA. I will see again someday in heaven and until then, watch over all of us.
