“ I met Francis when we were just teenagers, Martha met her soon after we were married and throughout these many years our lives crossed paths. And now that our children have married we once again shared moments and memories. Remember that your mother is with the lord now, and no longer in any pain. May your mother's soul rest in peace. Our heartfelt condolences to Richard, Denise, Dolores and the Campos Family during this time of loss.

“ Mom, its been only a week and I am having a hard time knowing I lost you. I am re-assured knowing that you are no longer in pain. Cancer may have been victorious over your physical body, but it was not victorious over your spiritual body. I love you and always will.
