

Francisca Picorro York

December 3, 1932 - June 6, 2021

Francisca Picorro York finished her course on June 6, 2021. Francisca was born on December 3, 1932 in the Philippines, on the island of Leyte, to Pablo Picorro and Silvena Aluyog. She was the youngest of all of her siblings. Francisca went to school in Balinsasayaw Leyte, where she met Francisco Darasin, the father of her children. The marriage did not last. Several years later she married Robert C. York and came to the United States. Francisca was an avid gardener, bowler, golfer and a ballroom dancer. She was even a singer in the orchestra in the Philippines. Francisca is survived by her two daughters Teresita Mehmen and Emelita Hall; son Mario Darasin, all of Las Vegas, Nevada; and an adopted niece Flordeliza York of Hayward, California. Francisca York will be greatly missed by her family and friends, especially by her six grandchildren, three great grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews.
