Miss Me but Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul that's set free. Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared. Miss me, but let me go. For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we knew and laugh at the things that we used to do. Miss me, but let me go.

“ The best person I have ever known. Your departure from this world left us all in disbelief. You were the epitome of what a man should be. I'm forever going to miss you and all the Mijas you would say every time I'd visit. ( I could hear your voice now) I love you uncle Frank.
