

Freddie Lee Sherman

December 30, 1948 - April 22, 2022

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while, please do not grieve and shed wild tears and hug your sorrow to you through the years, but start out bravely with a gallant smile; and for my sake and in my name live on and do all things the same. Feed not your loneliness on empty days, but fill each waking hour in useful ways. Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer and I in turn will comfort you and hold you near; and never, never be afraid to die, for I am waiting for you in the sky!

Tribute Wall

GS

“ Fred was my Sgt. at LCMC Jailwards- couldn't have had a nicer person for a boss. Just a kind, articulate man. My condolences to his wife and family- Genie Stevens

Genie Stevens - June 01, 2022 at 01:58 AM

JT

“ Lilian, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember your husband as a kind and funny man, who was a great supervisor. It is so nice to reflect on the good memories from great people. A lot of time has passed between us, since you both retired, but I like to always remember the good people that I had a pleasure of working with. I am grateful to you both for the fond memories. May your husbands Sole be with God, and may Freddie's Spirit, live within you and your family, always. J. Thompson

J Thompson - May 11, 2022 at 04:00 AM

CJ

“ Freddie was a good friend all around. When I first meet Freddie starting at my new job, he told me to come to him if I needed help and not to worry. As truth be told he was there. He was someone I cannot forget. Until the next time I see you in the trenches.

Carlton Jeans - May 04, 2022 at 02:23 PM