Miss Me but Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul that's set free. Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared. Miss me, but let me go. For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we knew and laugh at the things that we used to do. Miss me, but let me go.

“ This man was the greatest man I have ever known. I am so sad to not be able to talk or see him right now but I know he is in his happy place with grandma Darla (who I also miss like crazy). I will never stop thinking of them and the person they helped me become. I love you grandpa always and forever!!

“ George always had a smile on his face and was a very loving father, grandfather, and friend. He used to love to go out to the casinos with my mother-in-law, Virginia, her sister, Sarah Jane, Sarah's husband Paul and his wife, Darla. Now all of them are together possibly playing a card game in heaven! George was always ready to help. One time I almost got electrocuted from a broken dishwasher. He and Darla jumped in their car and came over in a heartbeat. Another time I put together a desk and could not do the last part, as the shelf was too heavy. George came over to the rescue. That is the kind, gentle soul he was. More of us should be like George, not looking for help but looking to help. RIP George...the DeFelice family will miss you and cherish the good times.

“ Uncle George... it was always so comforting just to be in your presence. Your laugh, just as infectious as your smile... we can still hear it. It's an honor not only to call you family, but you were our friend. We take away so many funny and crazy memories and moments together... they will never be forgotten. Knowing you're not a phone-call away when we need your wise advise is heartbreaking... but we know you're so happy up there. You could be happy just about anywhere. With all our love to you, Nancy and Shannon

“ Grandpa I never got to tell you thank you. Thank you for never giving up on me and thank you for unconditionally loving me. No matter what I did I was always perfect to you and I will miss you so much because there isnt a man on this earth that loved me as much as you did, and even though I cant see you anymore I know you and Grandma are watching over me and all of us. Save me a spot in heaven Grampy. I love you!Your First Born Grandbaby Becca

“ When I was a teenager and I was home let's see George pull up into his driveway in his pickup truck after A Hard Day's Work and I'd love to go over and talk with him. He was always so funny mellow and so humble. In many ways I could open up more to George and feel more comfortable then I could with my own father!!! I remember when my dad hurt his wrist and I took his place at 16 years old bowling on their team with George Bob Holcomb and some of the other guys which names Escape me right now. I really had fun with those men!!! I truly am sorry for your loss but it amazes me George never seem to age!!! I pray that you family stays strong and faithful during this sad time!!! You're now home with Darla and all your bowling Buddies!!! You were one of a kind George!!!Rest In Peace!!!

“ I am so sadden at his loss. Yet so happy he is reunited with his bride, siblings and friends that left to soon. What an amazing man. I loved his laugh and sense of humor. He lived life right. We all could use his way as an example of living life. Nothing is that bad. Smile. Be happy. Drink a beer. Cheers George. RIP
