I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard His call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. O yes, these things too, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee... God wanted me now. He set me free.

“ I met Gerry in the 1990s when he, and his wife, were visiting her relatives (Shirley Campbell et al) in Nova Scotia (at Shirley's riding stables in Windsor Junction ... near Halifax). Gerry was a mild mannered, quiet and intelligent gentleman in every sense of the word. During their stay, in Nova Scotia, I was able to commission this extremely talented artist into painting a portrait of my horse. He painted it when he was back in New York and shipped it to me when it was completed. I wasn't disappointed. I was proud to have had the opportunity to meet him and even more proud to be able to call him my friend. Rest In Peace Gerard Allan Knipscher ... You will Always Be Remembered.
