When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey and I travel my last weary mile, just forget if you can, that I ever frowned and remember only the smile. Forget unkind words I have spoken; remember some good I have done. Forget that I ever had heartache and remember I've had loads of fun. Forget that I have stumbled and blundered and sometimes fell by the way. Remember I have fought some hard battles and won, ere the close of the day, then forget to grieve for my going, I would not have you sad for a day, But in summer just gather some flowers and remember the place where I lay, and come in the evening when the sun paints the sky in the west, stand for a few moments beside me and remember only my best.

“Heather was loved by many. I miss her dearly. She was a blessing to my brother, and I loved seeing how much they loved each other. I wanted the kind of love that they had (and I think I found it in my husband). I'm glad Heather was a part of my life, and I will cherish all the good times that we had together.

“SHE WAS BEAUTIFUL, BUT NOT LIKE THOSE GIRLS IN THE MAGAZINES. SHE WAS BEAUTIFUL FOR THE WAY SHE THOUGHT. SHE WAS BEAUTIFUL FOR THE SPARKLE IN HER EYES WHEN SHE TALKED ABOUT SOMETHING SHE LOVED. SHE WAS BEAUTIFUL FOR HER ABILITY TO MAKE OTHER PEOPLE SMILE, EVEN IF SHE WAS SAD. NO, SHE WASN'T BEAUTIFUL FOR SOMETHING AS TEMPORARY AS HER LOOKS. SHE WAS BEAUTIFUL, DEEP DOWN TO HER SOUL.”

“ To my "work-wife" of many years... I wish I could have been there for you, in the ways you always stood up for me, stood by my side, combatted death, disease, pain, poverty and illness hand in hand... dualing with the forces of nature! Your innate ability to lift up those around you, support them and to truly let there talents shine.. while you seemingly always had an answer, suggestion or nudge to do the right thing, and if not then most definitely a comment about how we need to step it UP! You made superhero's out of many, and brought so much laughter to the work place and delivery of medicine! Punk rocking hair, and epic CHUCK shoes were to be expected always and not a moment went by that jokes and laughter couldn't fill! Not a day/ shift goes by when I don't fondly think back to the near 1/2 decade of memories, laughter, tears and stories... I only wish they could have continued! Know you will forever be in me, and with me.... as know-one will be able to keep me in check or rocking chucks like you!
I miss you dearly and send your mourning family All of my love!
Your "work-husband" ❤️

“ Some of the best times working nights was with Heather. We would bicker over whose music to listen to (of course Heather wanted Punk Rock, I wanted anything else but). We compromised though, had shuffled all kinds of music so all were happy in the end. She was and is a bright shining star who taught me so much believe it or not. My deepest condolences to Craig, her 2 daughters, family, and close friends. May you Rest In Peace Red, "Safety Sally", Heather.

“ Heather, my friend from day 1. You with the loud laugh, the big personality. Always stealing phones to flood my gallery with selfies. I miss you. Heaven has received a truly special soul. Rest easy, my friend. We'll take it from here.

“ I will miss your quit wit, your humor and your sarcasm. You were one of the funniest people that I knew. I am so grateful for the time we spent together before you left. I'm so sad that I will never get to see that smiling face again. Til we meet again friend. I love you.

“Hearing the news was shocking. Reading this makes it more real. Larger than life personality from the day I met you in 7th grade. Always happy. Always kidding around. To know you were surrounded by so many but still felt alone is a hard pill to swallow. We hadn't talked in a long time, but my heart dropped when I heard this news. I wish you'd have opened up to someone, anyone. I hope you're at peace, full of life, & have a front row seat to an eternal punk rock Heaven. Jess
